LOG-LINE: Italian crime "crew" catch up with a former Mob Boss, who has disappeared to go "legit"... (or has he?) by starring in a cooking show, which turns into a nationwide "hit."

Overview: THE LAST SUPPER, a weekly TV show, featuring the behind the scenes look at the life of a NYC Mob Boss, Vincenzo F. LaGuardia (Vinny) who 'disappeared' from the family and life of crime to go 'legit' and how he tries to remain 'un-findable.'

Vinny, a fast-talking and snap decision-maker, relocates to Florida's west coast in a small town that he believes is off-the-beaten-path to start a new life. After a few days of what feels like a vacation, Vinny 'itches' to be in some sort of 'business.' He buys a defunct nightclub, and while rehabbing it, is found by one of his 'former' crew members; Rocco Brunello, crime family attorney who is also 'going on the lam.'

His New York Family fears the worst after Vinny's disappearance when they find the remains of a Russian cigarette in his trashed apartment.

Vinny, desiring to reach out to a specific few real family relatives, comes up with the idea to create a weekly cooking show under an assumed 'stage' name after being introduced to the medium from a local foster KID and being inspired by youtube.

Against the better judgment of "Consiglieri" Rocco, Vinny creates a YouTube channel. Trouble ensues when he opens his nightclub for a weekly event called, "THE WISEGUY KITCHEN," which soon becomes the next YouTube sensation and then brings offers from television and national cable stations to run the show as a weekly episode.

Once the Mob-Family discovers the Russian's didn't kill him, and instead he's alive and well in Florida, they send a crew down to reason with him. But when Mob-Family members turn up dead, Vinny's life is turned upside down.

HOOR DRAMEDY

Imagine a series with the drama of 'THE SOPRANOS' and the comedy of 'EVERYONE LOVES RAYMOND'. Our content is different than any other TV show now running as our episodes consist of 60% drama and 30% comedy (10% to move the story along), a true ground breaker for a new series. We also believe we will attract the former audience members that loved SOPRANOS and RAYMOND even though our show flows in a different direction.

This is not a reality Television Series, but a fictional scripted series which just happens to include real dates, places, people in history. Viewers could mistake this for realism.

We have scripted 7 episodes and are in the process of completing an eighth. Also, a marketing plan that can exploit the series with retail sales, which should further titillate the likes of HBO, SHOWTIME, NETFLIX and others.

We also have a musical trick up our sleeve that will be a first in the TV industry and could easily catapult us to the lips of everyone.

The hour long program series is available for acquisition by producers, distributors, cable companies or on-demand firms. Due to language, it is not suitable for standard broadcast acquisition.

Just for kicks, we have gone beyond table reads and have filmed several scenes with the help of friends, just to see the written words in action.
